Casa Punto De Vista

Dear David,

I wanted to take a moment and give you some feedback your house from an event planners point of view.

The company for which I work is the top planning firm in Costa Rica, The owner was Costa Rica's very first professional event planner in the country. We have overseen more than 700 events and we plan events throughout the entire country.

One of the most popular venue choices for destination weddings now is the "luxury estate". We do on average around 20-30 weddings a year that take place in luxury estates. We have booked and hosted events in pretty much every estate nation wide that works well for groups. They offer that extra intimacy small groups desire as well as the ability to work with caterers and supplying your own bar, this giving the couple more freedom to host a classier event and not be boggled down by hotel policy or food and beverage prices that hotels escalate as they do.

I have had the pleasure of traveling throughout the entire country and helping my co-workers, so I have seen houses in the Tamarindo, Flamingo, Nicoya and the Papagayo region. I have experienced and hosted events at some of the most luxurious homes I thought I had ever set foot in... until I toured Punto de Vista. Your villa blew me away! IT is by far the BEST luxury estate I have seen from an event planners point of view. You are the first home owner who took basic event knowledge and applied that to your design. With many homes we have to get so creative in how to create enough space so that an event will work. Your home will need no creativity as you have already taken care of that.

You are the ONLY home in the country that has enough open space for a ceremony and reception to take place in 2 separate spots with enough seating for plus 70 guests. Your views are beyond amazing and the design is first class all the way. The house in my opinion is Magically perfect!! I am thrilled with what you have created and very much look forward to hosting yet another event in the beauty of what you created with our clientele.

Sincerely yours,

Karen Ogden
